Invocation

Quietly Preparing to Worship God

Everyone

As Boaz gave Ruth a kindness that went beyond the letter of the law, Jesus gives us a kindness that goes beyond the law as well. The law said Ruth was allowed scraps from the edge of the field, not a feast in the middle of it. Likewise, the law says sinners like us deserve punishment and death, not a feast at God's table.

Yet Jesus wisely gives us far more than the law says we deserve. And all we need to do to receive that type of kindness is wisely ask for it just as Ruth did.

May the Holy Spirit open your eyes to see the God who provides. And may you see Jesus as the one who faithfully, wisely, and sacrificially makes us his family.

I love the Lord, for he heard my voice; he heard my cry for mercy.

Because he turned his ear to me, I will call on him as long as I live.

The Lord is gracious and righteous; our God is full of compassion.

The Lord protects the simple-hearted; when I was in great need, he saved me.

Be at rest once more, O my soul, for the Lord has been good to you.

Amen.
