Invocation

Quietly Preparing to Worship God

Everyone

Please take a moment to silence your cell phones

Anyone can read the bulletin to see what is going to happen in worship any given Sunday. It is all there. Read this. Listen to that. Pick up hymnal here. Sit down after singing. It is all planned out, as good worship should be. There is a holy blend of tradition, scripture, well-crafted music, sound texts, good order, and most important: the unseen hand of God's Spirit in the planning. And it all is planned well, and in your hands right now as the bulletin, so we all know what is going to happen in worship. But on rare occasions, something happens in worship that is not in the bulletin. It happened for Isaiah, in the year that King Uzziah died. He went into the Temple, and out of nowhere, something happened that was not in the bulletin. It was totally unexpected. Isaiah, expecting to see a lot of things in the Temple, actually saw God. It was foundation-shaking.

What could happen today that is not in the bulletin? What do you need to happen? Whatever your expectations, whatever has been well-planned and printed, something more can happen.

Prelude

Christ, Who Is My Life

Responsive Reading

Dr. Jimmie Miles and Everyone

Congregation reads the bold print

As we gather for worship, we seek to see each other as God sees us. Brothers and sisters in faith, who are you?

I am a beloved child of God.

Who are you?

I am imperfect and in need of God's grace.

Who are you?

I am brave and my voice matters.

Who are you?

I am a witness to God's love.
