Invocation

Quietly Preparing to Worship God

Everyone

Please take a moment to silence your cell phones

When the Samaritan woman of John 4 returns to her village and invites others to meet “a man who told me everything I have ever done,” we know there is an unspoken clause at the end of her phrase. It is unwritten, but we know deep in our hearts what she means. It was true for her, and it is true for you. What she means is that Jesus is the One who “knows everything I have ever done”...and loves me anyway. Jesus loved her unconditionally, and his love remains a “no-strings-attached” love for you today. This is good news, and this good news calls us to worship the One who loves us anyway.

*Congregation reads the bold print

Come to the well that never runs dry. Bring your weariness, your deepest thirst, and your unspoken burdens.

We come seeking the Living Water. We come to meet the Savior who knows us completely and loves us anyway.

Jesus invites us to step out of the heat of the day and into the refreshing grace of God.

The hour has come when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth.

God is spirit, and He seeks those who will offer Him their whole hearts.

Let us draw near with joy. Let us worship in Spirit and in truth!
