Invocation

Quietly Preparing to Worship God

Everyone

—Please take a moment to silence your cell phones—

What is wonderful in your life? Your career? Your church? Your family? Can anything wonderful in life be unworthy of God's love and grace, given to us through Jesus?

Everything we think of as wonderful might not be truly worthy, but what is truly worthy is always wonderful. Jesus calls us to be worthy in our faith to Him. He raised the bar when He challenged us to place our devotion to Him above everything wonderful in our lives. Are we worthy of God's greatest gift to us? No, His grace covers our unworthiness. Do we live for Jesus sacrificially in life, even in loving our family? Jesus' expectation exceeds our daily capacity to exchange wonderful for worthy. How can we overcome our limitations? By loving God first with all our heart and mind and loving our neighbors as we want them to love us.

Leader: Almighty God, through the giving of your Son and by his resurrection you have redeemed us from sin, lostness and relieved the loneliness of our souls.

Congregation: You have adopted us to yourself and have made us your children and joint heirs of your eternal and holy kingdom with Jesus our Lord.

Leader: We are forever grateful to be a part of your family. Your family which sees not race, gender, politics, nations or any other destinations humans can create but is only known and defined by the love and adoration of your Son.

Congregation: And in our own families, which you have given to us, may we learn to love as you have loved us. Lord Christ may our families be anchored in you and may our homes be a haven of peace to all who join. Amen.
