Blessings. How often do we recognize them when they're given? God's blessings usually come in two forms—spiritual and material; Abram received a double dose of blessings from God. God promised to bless him, make his name great, and develop a great nation from Abram. The families of the earth would be blessed.

There were conditions for receiving blessings: faith in God's promises, obedience to God's commands, and striving to live righteously. This foundational covenant between God and Abram established the basis for all of God's Chosen People. Abram accepted and upheld this covenant during his lifetime. Many blessings followed.

God extended His unconditional love to establish a new Covenant rooted in agape love, mercy, and grace. Jesus Christ was sent by God to be the cornerstone of our foundation for living righteously.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Congregation reads the bold print

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things; his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

The Lord has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music.

Make music to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the sound of singing, with trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn—shout for joy before the Lord, the King.

Let the sea resound, and everything in it; the world, and all who live in it. Glorify the Lord with me; let us exalt his name together.
