Please take a moment to silence your cell phones

A young pastor struggling to cope with his suffering through rounds of chemotherapy had a revelation in his own pain – “Jesus and only Jesus makes suffering bearable, and when we connect our own suffering to the larger biblical story of suffering, even our pain can become redemptive.”

How do we suffer? Perhaps from a health crisis. Or due to persecution of Christian beliefs in intolerant parts of the world. We all suffer because of sin in this world. Jesus understood it. He compassionately saw suffering in others. He endured humiliation among His people and painful lashings before carrying His cross to Calvary for our sins. And He died on that cross to redeem our collective sins for our salvation.

But rejoice in so far as you are sharing Christ’s sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. 1 Peter 4:13

Congregation reads the bold print

Gracious Lord, hear our prayers.

Loving God, open our ears so that we may hear your call to us.

This Lenten journey has challenged us to look deep within ourselves.

We have come to know that apart from you, we are nothing.

Have mercy on us, O God, according to your steadfast love;

according to your abundant mercy blot out our transgressions.

Wash us thoroughly from our iniquity,

and cleanse us from our sin.

For we know our transgressions,

and our sin is ever before us.

Against you, you alone, have we sinned,

and done what is evil in your sight,

so that you are justified in your sentence

and blameless when you pass judgment.

Create in us a clean heart, O God,

and put a new and right spirit within us.

Restore to us the joy of your salvation,

and sustain in us a willing spirit.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.
